Give Them a Chance!

That is to say, your lungs. Also all you breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thou ands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not be there your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Bosehee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if every-thing else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

When on the sultry Summers day, the sun seems about a mile off; When comes sick headache to oppress, And every moment brings distress, Then SHILOH'S SELENTZER proves a friend to all can recommend.

Farms and Fireside.

About 5,000 patents have been granted by the Government for churns, and still inventors are at work perfecting new designs.

A pretty pen-wiper is made by cutting little strips of cloth and tying them together with a leather strap, so as to look like a bundle of shawls.

The wooden grape baskets are made into work baskets and lined with pin-cushions and pockets. Bright ribbon bows are pladed on the handles.

An exchange says that all you have to do is to plant the cabbage, and nature will come along after a while and put a head on it.

A teaspoonful of flour, mixed with a teaspoonful of gin and a wineglassful of milk, taken fasting three times a week is excellent for clearing the skin of impurities.

Baked Milk.—Put a half-gallon of milk in a jar and tie it down with writing paper. Let it stand in a moderate oven eight or ten hours. It will be like cream and is very nutritious.

Nothing adds more to the comfort of the occupants of a farm-house than dry and clean walls about it. They are almost indispensable from November till May, and do not come amiss during the other five months.

A German paper says that a roof can be made fire-proof by covering it with a mixture of lime, salt and wood ashes, adding a little lamp-black to it to make it a dark color. This not only guards against fire, it is claimed, but also in a measure prevents decay.

A Wisconsin farmer claims to have found a sure cure for potato blight. He plants to put one or two max seeds in each hill of potatoes. He says that the bugs will shun it every time, and for ten years he has thus been successful in growing potatoes while others failed.

Punch Without Liquor.—Take the juice of six oranges and six lemons, adding sugar to suit the taste. Put to this a quantity of pounded ice and some sliced pineapple, pouring over it two quarts of water. This is an agreeable summer beverage for anybody, sick or well.

A novel cure for hog cholera comes from New Jersey. The discoverer, instead of waiting for his hogs to die, buried them alive, leaving their heads above ground. He fed them in this anomalous position for two weeks, and then resurrected them, to find them as well as ever.

Leaks in roofs, about chimneys and elsewhere, may be stopped by thickening white lead paint with fine clean sand.

Openings are easily filled with this cement, and become durably water-tight. For smaller leaks less sand is put in, and the paint remains more or less liquid.

An Indians dairyman covers the cow with a horse blanket or sheet while milking, thus preventing the annoyance of flies, and adding greatly to the comfort of the cow, which is otherwise continually engaged in battle with the insect world. If a horse blanket is used it should be a clean one.

An excellent way to sweep a carpet is as follows: Sprinkle wet brown paper over it before sweeping. Tear the wetted paper in pieces about the size of your hand and throw them thickly all over the floor. The pieces rattle up the dust and give a fresh, clean look, without any danger of spoiling the colors.

Macaroni cooked with tomatoes makes an elegant entree. Use instead of water to cook them in some soap stock; will have a dozen tomatoes of medium size for half a pound of macaroni, which you have broken into small bits, and when it is almost tender add the peeled and sliced tomatoes; season highly with pepper and salt.

In Brief, and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made Americans a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

WEDNESDAY JULY 27, 1887.

Senator Hawley, of Connecticut, who is the guest of prominent Englishmen in London, said in conversation the other day that he believed that Blaine would be renominated by the Republicans; that everything looked that way now. He was not so certain about Cleveland being renominated. He said that if he should write one or two more letters on the soldier question his chances for renomination would be absolutely gone, but as a Senator he did not care to criticize the President personally.

Los Angeles has two new papers, both of which appeared for the first time Monday evening—the Evening Telegram, representing the wing of the Democracy antagonistic to J. D. Lynch and his Herald, and the Daily News, a small four-column folio that sells for one cent. It pledges no party allegiance, is anti-Chinese, indorses the American party, and wants pauper immigration stopped. The Bostonian tourist now has a chance to dispose of his pennies; but, alas! the contribution box at church will suffer.

The late warm wave in the East has had the effect of reviving the old discussion whether Henry Ward Beecher really did make that emphatic remark about the heat of the weather. While it is more than doubtful that the Brooklyn clergymen said it years ago, it is quite certain that a great many of his countrymen have said, as then, the past week, and meant it too, that it was d—d hot.

The reports of the peaceful and prosperous way in which the fishing interest is going on this summer, leave it open to conclude either Canada has concluded to behave herself, or that the country is so wrapped up with the struggles of John Sherman that complaints from the fishermen are used.

Col. Thomas, the Fourth of July orator at Fargo, Dakota, opened his remarks about as follows: "I understand it is not true that Mr. Cleveland has signed an order returning the Fourth of July to Great Britain."

The President, like some women, evidently claims the privilege of changing his mind whenever so disposed. He has decided to go to St. Louis during the State Fair in October.

The Inter-State Commerce Commission has decided that discrimination must not be practiced by railroad companies either in favor or against commercial travelers.

Sherman's Candidacy.

TOLEDO, Ohio, July 26.

Great interest is being taken in the proceedings of the incoming Republican State Convention, because of the fact that a resolution will be offered in endorsing Senator Sherman for the Presidential nomination. There is no doubt the resolution will carry in the convention. The two things in doubt are how strongly it will be opposed on the floor of that body, and whether the opposition can muster sufficient strength to break the force before the country, of an indorsement.

The opponents of the resolution claim they can muster at least one-third of the convention, while the supporters of it declare it will go through with a whirl, and that opposition will be too insignificant to amount to anything but an exhibition of personal dislike.

Several anti-Sherman men have arrived on a late train here, having been summoned by telegrams. The evening has been spent at an effort of conciliation, and the Senators friends claim at midnight that there will be no serious opposition to the passage of a resolution of indorsement. It seems probable that at this writing the policy of conciliation will win, the argument being that a resolution can have no binding effect upon convention next year to select delegates to the National Convention; that Sherman's long, splendid services entitle him to a resolution of indorsement, and that the Ohio Republicans cannot afford to sacrifice their greatest man.

The probable indorsement will be introduced to-morrow early in the session and will not be postponed to Thursday as was first supposed. If there is opposition it will be referred to the Committee on Resolutions and passed on Thursday.

A Report on the Atlanta.

NEW YORK, July 27.

A Herald's special from New York says: "The Board appointed by Secretary Whitney to inspect the Atlanta, went on board the vessel yesterday, and the official report will be made in a few days. The result of the labors of the Board summarized are: The ship appears to be strong and seaworthy; her armament is manifestly intact. The deck of the vessel remains intact. The gun carriages, clip circle and clips will have to be repaired before further tests can be made. This portion of the fittings of the vessel was evidently not intended to retard the recoil of the guns, and the damage done to the gun carriages is irreparable. It is manifest from the location of the six-inch guns, that if the eight-inch guns were in perfect order, the six-inch guns would be idle, and it would be impossible to work both guns at the same time. The smaller secondary battery is also useless, while either the eight or six-inch guns are being fired. The result is that the Atlanta, as a vessel, is now unseaworthy and worthless. The discharge of the heavy guns is likely to be followed by injury to the vessel's three batteries, which ought to be so arranged as to be fired, if necessary, simultaneously, as is imperative for a single fire.

Causing a Sensation.

NEW YORK, July 27.

An Ottawa special says the announcement that the messenger in the House of Commons has entered action against Sir Charles Tupper, Minister of Finance, on behalf of his wife, for detective service she performed for Sir Charles, is causing a great sensation here. Bill said yesterday, Sir Charles having charged him with attempted blackmail, that he is now publishing a pamphlet in which he intends to show up the character of Sir Charles' son, a member of Parliament named Colby, who were at one time, boarders at his house.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

John Taylor Dead.

SALT LAKE, July 26.

The death announced to-night of John Taylor, President of the Mormon Church. He died last night at 8 o'clock, but the place is not given. He was in his seventy-ninth year. He joined the Mormon Church in 1837, and was made one of the Twelve Apostles in 1888. He was a missionary twenty years and editor of various church papers and publications, and edited polygamy. He was among the first to practice it after years of being in it. He was President of the Twelve Apostles when Brigham Young died, and President of the Church in 1889. He was indicted for unlawful cohabitation early in 1885, and went into hiding in February of that year, and has not shown up in public since.

George Q. Cannon to-night has a bitter article in the Church organ against Taylor's blood on the persons of others who have hounded him to his death.

Looks a Little Crooked.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.

The history of the formation of the Case Land Company at Cheyenne, Wyoming, with a capital stock of $25,000,000, is made the occasion for an extensive article by the Advertiser this morning. The company was incorporated to develop the Peralta grant, containing five million acres, lying between Tucson and Phoenix, in Arizona. The land was originally owned by Don Peralta, an old Spanish settler, who obtained a patent from the Mexican Government. Under a stipulation of the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, the United States Government agreed to respect the old Spanish titles. Peralta died, leaving an only son as the surviving heir to his estate. Many years ago this son went to Spain and died in the Castilian capital. Three years ago J. Addison Reavis, of Missouri, appeared in Spain, having married an eight-year-old girl, whom he claimed to be the granddaughter of Don Peralta, and the heiress to this large property. Reavis and his wife are now in this city. The Spanish Government having recognized Mrs. Reavis, or the "Baroness of the Colorados," as she is called, as the proper owner of the Spanish title to the land, the Advertiser publishes an interview with a resident of Yolo county who deems that the heiress is the daughter of a Missionary named Treadwell, who married an Indian woman near Woodland, on the other hand it is claimed that the girl is Spanish, and that her mother died in San Diego at her birth, and shortly after, this girl's father and grandfather went to Mendocino county, where Treadwell was engaged to teach school. Both the father and grandfather died in 1888, and it is claimed, fell into the hands of Treadwell. She worked in various Woodland homes as a maid of all work. The directors of the land company are Edward S. Stokes, of New York, J. H. Benson, of this city and Reavis, but a number of men of national reputation are mentioned as stockholders.

Imprisoned for Libeling the Dead.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 27.

The Tiempo has resumed publication after eleven days' suspension. The Tiempo thanks the family of the late President Juarez for their intervention in behalf of its imprisoned editor, and the Advertiser is gratified to learn that the paper had made itself liable to criminal proceedings, by having attacked the memory of Juarez. The Editor-in-Chief, Agoston, is still in prison.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Thirty-one carloads of wine have left the St. Helena, California, depot since July 1st.

Mrs. J. Fenton, of Los Angeles, was fatally burned last Saturday while starting a fire with coal oil.

The First United States Infantry, encamped at Santa Cruz, have asked to be allowed to remain there all summer.

There has been much sickness among the Topolobampo colonists, and they are in great fear of the yellow fever.

Near Nogales last Monday, Ce- rillo Gutierrez accidentally shot and killed a woman named Manuela Velezquez.

A San Jose bicyclist is having a machine made in the East with a 9-foot wheel, and which will run a mile in a minute.

Phoenix, Arizona, is much excited over the attacks made on land titles in that town by a syndicate of Government officials.

Successful experiments have been made with a natural gas well at Livermore, Cal. An effort will be made to utilize the gas.

Ed. Martin, a miner, had his left hand blown off by a giant powder cartridge last Saturday at a mine in Butte county, California.

Tombstone is rejoicing over a rich strike on the 600 foot level of the Emerald mine, where a six-foot ledge was struck which assays $200 per ton.

A project is on foot in New Mexico for the admission of that Territory as a State. The proposition is to take a part of Texas with the latter's consent.

Forest fires near Astoria, Oregon, have done much damage. Several narrow escapes are reported, and it is feared that some of the interior settlers have lost their lives.

John McRae, steward of the steamer Umatilla, was fatally injured by a fall from the wharf at Seattle last Monday. He leaves a wife and children in San Francisco.

The London Financial News says that silver is scarce. The arrivals in the London market are small lots, and any considerable demand causes a rise in quotations.

The Chinese merchants have petitioned the Common council of Los Angeles to offer a reward for the arrest and conviction of the incendiaries who set fire to the Chinese quarter of that city last Saturday night.

National City, San Diego county, California, elected municipal officers last Saturday under a new charter which makes the place a city of the sixth class. Statistics show $227,000 of buildings and improvements in the above place during the past year.

A Famine in Iceland.

Intelligence received from Iceland is to the effect that famine prevails in certain parts of the island, and that numerous deaths from starvation had taken place. In one district in the north 120 head of cattle, 11,000 sheep and 300 head of horses had perished for want of food, a snowstorm having covered up all vegetation, and there being no store of hay or fodder.

Quick Work.

The Utah and Northern Railroad, formerly narrow-gauge, was on last Monday widened to the standard gauge between Butte, M. T., and Poston, a distance of 262 miles. The change was made most expeditiously and in approved style. The first train over the road Tuesday made an average running time of thirty-eight miles an hour.

A DAKOTA BRIDE.

Who Suddenly Subduced an Exacting Husband.

Old Bud Jackson, one of the terrors of Montana, lost his fourth wife and came over into Dakota for a fifth wife. He met and married the widow Baggs, a frail, gentle looking little woman, who had just been left a widow for the third time, and seemed crushed to earth by her losses.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson wedded their way to Bud's Montana home, and at the gushing bridegroom led his bride into his lovely cot of one room and introduced her to his favorite dog, he said tenderly:

"You want to remember, Mrs. Jackson, that I'm the boss here. Don't you never forget that. The four dear compatriots that I've laid away mighty soon found that out. All I ever had to do was to crook my finger and they come a runnin' to know what I want. There can't be hangin' back nor askin' questions. You know what I mean?"

"No," said the bride, "I know what you mean. You want to know what I mean?"

Senator Hearst's Influence. At the request of Senator Hearst, of California, F. T. Murray, of San Francisco, has been appointed Railroad Postal Clerk on the Mound House and Keeler route, in place of Ernest Cary, resigned. From this says the Carson Tribune, it appears that Hearst controls the distribution of Federal patronage in Nevada as well as California.

THE TONERIAL BAZAAR.

Lovely Bath Rooms—Artistic Hair Cutting—A in Pompadour—Clean Shaving—Coleman and Gebhardt.

My observation through life has been, with reference to ready men who do not enjoy the advantages of a University course of studies, that among tradesmen, the tailor, barber and shoemaker stand out most prominently. This may be due possibly to the fact that my father was a Cispen. However, I still believe in the truth of the above declaration; and who is there in this great land that would feel at home while having himself prepared for the entire into society by his favorite barber, that would forego the luxury of falling asleep under the serene influences of a well-informed and eloquent toner. If there be any let him stand up and declare himself.

"Mr. Blaine, of course; and it will be a hot, exciting neck-and-neck race between them."

ANOTHER OPINION.

Turning from the Senator the reporter next confronted the celebrated blind political boss of San Francisco, Mr. Chris Buckley, who in company with Doc Eaton was on his way to Sacramento for a trip around the world. While at the same time, divorces, slopepons, inharmonious domestic relationships, points in stocks, accidents, real estate transactions, foreign politics, State secrets and knotty legal propositions are always at the tongue's end of this genus homo. Yet they are not numerous enough. Here in Reno several aspire to this distinction, but there is only one shop in which this rara avis is to be found, and that is the popular barber shop and bathing establishment of

CHARLES COLEMAN AND THEODORE GEBHARDT

On Virginia street, near Commercial Row. Full of enterprise and ever smiling, these two artists who perfected their knowledge of shaving, hair-dressing and shampooing in the metropolis of the country, are par excellent in these peculiarities. I would wait a whole week to be rubbed down and be massaged by either one or the other, in preference to going into a shop where I had to subject myself to the diatribes of a novice. The exquisite touch and pleasurable influence of the trained manipulator of the highly polished Sheffield make amends for all other shortcomings. This accounts for the steady stream of people that daily visit them, either to be shaved, have their hair dressed or cut a la Pompadour, or take a salt water, Turkish, hot or cold water or shower bath. Every facility is placed at their disposal here. In fact, Mr. Coleman was the first to not only build excellent bath-rooms in this city, but to introduce what is now the great rage in hair cutting, "a la Pompadour." He takes great pride of this fact and certainly gives his patrons all the advantages of his knowledge with a grace that well becomes an intelligent professional tonerologist. The shop they occupy has three beautiful chairs in it, and is 25x12 feet in dimensions. Three large tall mirrors face each chair, while in the intersections are pictures of lovely women. The ceiling is paneled and painted in lively colors, while in the west end a stove on which a shining copper kettle ever filled with boiling water for shampooing, is visible, and little to the right a handsome marble-top wash-stand, supplied with hot and cold water, keeps the booth company. To the rear of the chairs the whole north side is embossed with every article of need, ranging to the most prominent citizens of the city, as well as bottles of bay rum, hair oil and every character of cosmetics. Three large glass doors give an abundance of light during the day while the incomparable

ELECTRIC LIGHT illuminates the parlor at night. To the rear are three commodious bath-rooms, the tubs in which are lined with highly polished zinc. The rooms dimension are 8x8 feet, while the ceiling is 12 feet overhead. All the paraphernalia appertaining is in strict accord with the excellence of the shaving parlor. The floors are carpeted, and in the Summer season quite cool and healthy, while during the Winter season a small stove in each adds warmth and pleasure to the immersion. The large boiler in which the hot water is kept was especially built for the purpose of giving customers all the hot water they desire, as it contains at all times at least 800 gallons of water. Everything else is indicative of the Laputa mine, went below last night.

Bishop Whitaker preached at a large congregation in Austin, Sunday night.

C. H. E. Hardin, of Mason Valley, returned this morning from California, on account of the excellent accommodations, and the refreshing influences of the waters of the grand old Truckee river.

M. Cohn, the Carson drug goods dealer, went below last evening.

Judge T. D. Edwards, of Carson, returned from the Bay this morning.

J. Thomas Bradley, the discoverer of the Laputa mine, went below last night.

Bishop Whitaker preached at a large congregation in Austin, Sunday night.

C. H. E. Hardin, of Mason Valley, returned this morning from the experiences of Mr. Coleman, who has been on this coast since 1863, and is unable to write a novel; but it is not his purpose to go into such details. Suffice it to say that he is known all over the coast, and has courageously risen, Phoenix like, out of two confusions, which for a time destroyed his business. His first appearance on the scene in Nevada was under circumstances that merit the highest praise for moral courage, for he was confident in the cause of the State. I would like to say that it is impossible. Suffice it to say that he does not seek trade. It seeks him; also his partner, Mr. Gebhardt. Both are artists. Their work speaks for itself, and no man ever entered their handsome parlors but returned or wanted to return again. Both became professional artists under the direction of the great New York and are not inclined to show off their diplomas in their hands to convince the public of this fact. This brief article would be incomplete were I to forget to say that ladies can have their hair dressed or otherwise attended to in one of the private parlors, so that they will not be subjected to the gaze of the regular masculine customers. Children like to call find this bazaar an enjoyable place at every hour.

MEDICAL DISPENSARY

Sunshiny Husbands.
We read so much about the obligation laid upon the wife to be a perpetual sunbeam in the house, that a word to husbands on this topic may not be amiss.
A good wife is a great asset to a happy home life. It is hard for children to be good when they are exposed to an agent that stirs up strife and contention between the wife and the husband. It is very difficult for a wife to maintain a calm and charming sweet demeanor when her husband is critical, or sullen, and takes all her efforts with indifference.

I know full well the air of polite amazement or amiable incredulity with which men receive the statement of a woman's opinion that in the home partnership the wife, and not the husband, laboring the care. Still, it is true, that a man's business is ever so engrossing, ever so wearisome, ever so lab-orous, the mere fact that he goes to it in the morning and returns from it at night, sets him above his wife in the estimation of the world outside; he has change of scenes daily; he meets people and hears them talk; and his home is distinctly his refuge and shelter.

Let a wife and mother love her home and children with the most absolute, unswerving devotion, and serve them with the most selfish fidelity, there are, nevertheless, times when she is very weary.

She knows better than any one else the steps and the stitches, the same things done over and over, and the pettiness of the trials that come to the nursery and kitchen. They are so inconsequential that she is ashamed to talk about them, and I fear she sometimes forgets to tell her Saviour how hard they press her; and so, bearing her cross alone, its weight becomes crushing. A sunshiny husband makes a merry, beautiful home, which having, worth working in and for. If the man is a fool, he considers himself a wise man, his wife is sex and age. Strict secrecy in regard
